SPARKLING WINES

| | Glass | Bottle |
|---|-------|--------|
| Prosecco, Ruggeri “Gold Label” (Italy) NV | 8.5 | 36 |
| An off- dry, effortlessly light, airy, delicious Italian bubbly. It’s the perfect aperitif. | | |
| Classic Bellini | 9 | |
| The perfect start to any meal, using white peach purée from Napa Valley. | | |
| Cava, Anna De Codorniu, Brut (Spain) NV | 6.5 | 28 |
| Bright fruit, earth laden with great acidity, majority chardonnay based Spanish coastal wine | | |
| Veuve Fourny & Fils, Premier Cru “Grande Reserve”, Brut (France) NV | | 69 |
| Tiny bubbles...full of finesse, pure and fine, with great balance. An excellent example of a French “Grower” Champagne at it’s best! | | |
| Rosé, J Lassalle, Premier Cru, Brut (France) NV | | 85 |
| This is a well-balanced, delicate, classy and terrific wine. It is full of finesse and breed...wow! | | |

WHITE WINES

| | | |
|--|-----|----|
| Falanghina, Terredora (Italy) 2011 | 8.5 | 32 |
| Grown on the volcanic slopes of Mt Vesuvius, this is the very kind of white wine served in cafés and bistros in Italy’s Campania region with anything from caprese salads to seafood or light pastas. | | |
| Picpoul de Pinet, Le Jade (France) 2010 | 7.5 | 29 |
| An absolutely riveting, tasty and refreshing southern French café white wine. Its dry, crisp and utterly refreshing nature makes it incredibly food friendly, especially with seafood. | | |
| Vermentino de Sardegna, Sella and Mosca “La Cala” (Italy) 2010 | 7.5 | 29 |
| A dry, lively, crisp white from the picturesque isle of Sardinia, where it is always served with fresh seafood and light pastas. | | |
| Albariño, Fillaboia (Spain) 2011 | | 35 |
| This is a wine you won't want to miss out on. These aromatic grape varieties heighten food like few others can. It’s a terrific, wonderfully perfumed, riveting, fresh & alive Spanish white. | | |
| Rosé, Whispering Angel (France) 2011 | | 33 |
| This provencal wine has an almost ethereal feel due to the influence of the limestone where it is grown. It is not tutty fruity and we think it’s one of the VERY best food friendly roses available today. | | |
| Riesling, Josef Leitz “Leitz Out” (Germany) 2011 | | 29 |
| An absolutely delicious, wonderfully fruity, light German white wine. | | |
| Chardonnay, Tilia (Argentina) 2010 | 6.5 | 26 |
| A sensational value, from the Andes Mountains, it’s a tasty, lush, rounder style of Chardonnay, with a very generous helping of gorgeous fruit. | | |
| Chardonnay, Varner “Foxglove” (Central Coast) 2010 | 8 | 30 |
| The highly acclaimed Varner Brothers produce some of the finest Chardonnay out of California. "Foxglove" is their every day Chardonnay that is perennially rated as one of the World's BEST BUYS and deservedly so. It is delicious, lush and pretty. | | |
| Chardonnay, Au Bon Climat “Sanford and Benedict” (Santa Ynez Valley) 2009 | | 55 |
| Jim Clendenen (owner and wine maker) is uncompromising in his search for the classic wine. He makes this wine for himself and for you to enjoy. It’s more Burgundy than California, “quietly” complex and LONG. We hope that you enjoy it. | | |
| White Burgundy, Mâcon-Chaintré (France) 2009 | | 39 |
| Classic Chardonnay at it’s purest, mineral driven, rich on the palate; this is a great food wine! | | |
| Sauvignon Blanc, Rusack (Santa Ynez Valley) 2011 | 8 | 30 |
| Undoubtedly one of California's most pretty and refined wines with simple tropical notes and a lingering lemon undercurrent...one of California’s finest. | | |
| Sauvignon Blanc, Domaine du Salvard “Unique” (France) 2011 | | 35 |
| A VERY classy, elegant, wonderfully pure and food friendly Sauvignon Blanc. It is very dry and aromatic with hints of tropical fruits. This wine shows the quality of modern day France. | | |
| Muscadet, Domaine Du Grande Mouton “Cuvée One” (France) 2009 | | 38 |
| A wine from the Loire valley that offers a crisp purity of flavors that goes extremely well with any of our fish dishes. | | |

RED WINES

| | Glass | Bottle |
|---|-------|--------|
| Sangiovese Blend, Morellino di Scansano, La Mozza “I Perazzi” (Italy) 2010 | 9 | 34 |
| A truly superb, soulful, contemporary Tuscan red from Chef Mario Batali. This wine is well suited to our cuisine, and it stands out from the crowd but is still very ITALIAN. | | |
| Sangiovese Blend, Chianti Classico, Felsina Berardenga (Italy) 2009 | 12 | 47 |
| A very feminine, pretty style of Chianti...which is generally regarded as one of the VERY best! | | |
| Malbec, Catena (Argentina) 2010 | 8 | 31 |
| A provocative, UN-heavy, "mountain grown" Argentinean thoroughbred, with deep black berries and hints of spice. An excellent new world style of Malbec. | | |
| Malbec Blend, Cahors, Clos la Coutale (France) 2009 | | 35 |
| An intriguingly rustic, brooding, soulful, masculine BLACK wine from southwest France. | | |
| Dolcetto, Palmina (Santa Barbara) 2010 | 10 | 39 |
| This REALLY is an absolutely delicious red wine, which you can win a lot of friends with. It's a wonderfully fruit driven Italian look-a-like from superstar Pinot maker, Steve Clifton. | | |
| Cerasuolo Di Vittoria, Gulfi (Sicily) 2010 | | 45 |
| A wonderful, multi-layered food friendly wine from the rugged Island of Sicily | | |
| Syrah, Domaine Faury, Rhone Valley (France) 2011 | | 46 |
| Terroir, now that's what we are talking about, an excellent example of an “Old World Syrah”. Great texture, excellent earthy notes with a lot of black and white pepper! | | |
| Syrah, Girasole, Mendocino County, 2003 | | 75 |
| This exquisite syrah was made by pinot master Gary Burk for Nunzio and Chuck's private collection and now you can enjoy it! Eaglepoint Ranch is an acclaimed hilltop vineyard in the Mendocino mountains, when describing this wine start with the word delicious... | | |
| Cabernet Sauvignon, Broadside “Margarita Vineyard” (Paso Robles) 2010 | 10 | 38 |
| A fabulous, new discovery from the limestone-soiled vineyards of south Paso Robles — ripe, generous, slightly oak laden, yet very balanced & well rounded. | | |
| Cabernet Sauvignon, Falcone (Paso Robles) 2010 | | 65 |
| Black fruit, full of flavor, yet surprisingly un-heavy. Bottled unfiltered...only 400 cases produced. | | |
| Pinot Noir, CF Wines (Santa Maria) 2010 | 12 | 47 |
| A wonderfully perfumed, feminine, lovely style of Santa Barbara Pinot made exclusively for CF. You will not find a better Pinot offered by the glass than this! | | |
| Pinot Noir, Ojai, “Presidio Vineyard” (Santa Barbara) 2008 | | 68 |
| This is a very elegant and stylish Pinot. I love the texture and balance of this wine, as it is very reminiscent of an old world Burgundy. | | |
| Lacrima, Di Morro D'Alba, Orgiolo, (Italy) 2009 | | 48 |
| This earthy, spicy, delicious red comes from the almost extinct Lacrima grape. There is only a three-day window to harvest this grape as its skin is so delicate. It's an absolute must, as it works so well with our food! | | |
| Barolo, Mauro Molino (Italy) 2007 | | 95 |
| This “king” grape is extremely food friendly; with it's well balanced acidity, perfumed fruit and long dry finish. It's had time to age and drinks great right now! | | |
